Gently does it skin care

When I tried Che Gentle Cleanse, it felt like my skin was drinking itself young. It contains Canadian Willowherb which is known for its anti-viral and free radical fighting properties and ability to soothe inflamed or irritated skin, so if it tingles a bit, you know it's working. It's a product suitable for all skin types so if your skin changes from month to month you can still keep using it.

Building foundations

I was never keen on loose powder foundation but after trying Divina's Loose Mineral Foundation I've been converted. It gives really even coverage and does a great job of hiding fine lines and blemishes. I thought, being a powder the colour wouldn't last long, but it sure has some staying power. Use a brush that has dense, firm, yet soft-to-touch bristles and use the powder sparingly because it goes along way.

In the smooth groove

There's nothing like soft skin after a bath or shower to leave you with the feeling of utter tranquillity. Princess Pa Earth Mineral Body Lotion with its pure mineral water and the sacred lotus felt so good on my skin and smelt delicious. It's not too potent in smell like some lotions and on delicate skin you'll be left with an overall smoothness.

Male order

I had to give this product to a mate to try and the response was two thumbs up so it must be good. He told me that Arbonne's new RE9 Advanced for Men Shave Gel felt good and that's no surprise with its combination of algae extract, seaweed, sea buckthorn oil and stabilised Vitamin C to feed the skin. From a woman's perspective, it smelt great and left the skin feeling soft. Now all I have to do is convince the guy to keep the daily beauty regime going.
